

AAATesting Branch report

21st March 2003

Web site updates have been done, and the quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog. Fun, fun, fun!

Apart from that, this branch has done nothing this year, nothing last year, in fact nothing ever. You're better off looking at a real branch (except they don't have any reports yet).

"We decided it would be easier to build a new doghouse than to clean the old one."
