

Jean Martin has been a committed member of the Society for over forty years. Her contribution to the Society has been significant and far-reaching – at branch, national, and international levels. Jean has taught at Summer and Winter Schools as well as day and weekend schools throughout the world. She is a tutor, examiner and adjudicator.

Jean was Chairman of Aberdeen Branch during its 75th Anniversary. She made a valuable contribution to the production of the anniversary book and CD, The Aberdeen Collection. She is currently a proactive committee member. She was a teacher by profession and continues to carry that professionalism over into her branch teaching. She has a wide experience of demonstrations and festivals.

Jean was Chairman of the Society from 2002 till 2004. As first Chairman under the new management structure, she proved to be a strong and effective administrator. While Chairman, she travelled widely promoting the aims and preserving the standards of the Society. Jean has served on many Society committees, including more recently on Membership Services where she was heavily involved in the introduction of the Combined Volumes beginning with the Miscellanies. Jean subsequently served another term on the Management Board greatly assisting in the discussions leading to the conversion of the Society to a Company Limited by Guarantee. She is a strong advocate of the Society magazine and is currently on its editorial board.
