Headquarter Membership application form

The Royal Scottish Country Dance

The stated objects of the Society shall be to advance the education of the public in traditional Scottish country dancing and in furtherance thereof: -

- (a) To preserve and further the practice of traditional Scottish Country Dancing;*
- (b) To provide, or assist in providing, special education or instruction in the practice of Scottish Country Dancing;*
- (c) To promote/publish by all available means information and music relating to Scottish Country Dancing and in particular to publish or cause to be published descriptions of Scottish Country Dances with music and diagrams in simple form and at moderate price;*
- (d) To collect books, manuscripts, illustrations and other memorabilia relating to Scottish Country Dancing and to the Society;*
- (e) Generally to do such other things as are or may be considered by the Society to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects above stated or any of them.*

In pursuance of the above, the Society, through its branch network, offers a full range of classes and social activities. In addition, there is an annual Summer School open to members where a full range of classes are taught by experienced and enthusiastic teachers. The Society regularly publishes books of dance instructions and music, together with CDs. Members receive Scottish Country Dancer, the Society's magazine, twice yearly free of charge.

The Society welcomes people of all nationalities over the age of 12. Membership subscriptions may be paid:

- through the Local Association (Branch) or Affiliated Group in your area;*
- through any other Local Association (Branch) of your choice, including the International Branch, which has members in many countries;*
- direct to Headquarters (this entails an additional administrative charge).*

If you wish to join through Headquarters please complete and return the form overleaf and send it together with the appropriate amount to RSCDS, 12 Coates Crescent, Edinburgh, EH3 7AF, or by Email info@rscds.org or obtained from Headquarters in Edinburgh.

Branch Membership: You may prefer to join a Branch if there is one in your vicinity. By doing so, there will be the opportunity for much more social contact. Your local Branch will be able to provide you with details of events and classes locally which Headquarters is unable to do. You can find your nearest branch on our website. If there is no Branch in your vicinity you may also wish to consider joining the International or Youth Branches.

Potential members should be aware that Headquarters membership does not allow for representation at the Society's Annual General Meeting, which is restricted to Branch delegates.

The Society has published a large number of books of dance instructions, both with and without printed music. Recordings on CD and videos are also available. Please see the website or contact HQ for a catalogue and price list.

Members are entitled to a 10% discount on RSCDS books, CDs, accessories.
